

MERRITT ISLAND PIONEER DAY

Saturday, February 9, 2019

10:00 AM – 4:00 PM

The SBHS monthly meeting, will be held "In The Community" with a booth at this event. We encourage all members and friends to come by our table and say Hello.

Pioneer John Sams, a citrus-grower and the first Superintendent of Brevard County Schools. The Sams Cabin is now a museum within the 1,000-acre Pine Island Conservation Area.

PIONEER JOHN SAMS

Celebrating the History of Merritt Island on this 8th Annual "Pioneer Day" Event

Crafts Fair, Farmers Market, Living History Demonstrations, LIVE MUSIC from several local Entertainers with Children's Activities and several Guided History and Wildlife Trails that will appeal to Everyone!

Free Admission Event

Sams House at Pine Island – 6195 N. Tropical Trail, Merritt Island.
Presented by St. Luke's Episcopal Church - 5555 N. Tropical Trail
Providing Free Shuttle and $1.00 suggested donation for parking.

For directions and an overview of the day's events please go to www.mipioneerday.com

South Brevard Historical Society, Inc.

Founded 1966

www.southbrevardhistory.org