A Presentation by Jill Berry

South Brevard Pioneers:
THE CLOHECY FAMILY

3:00 PM

Melbourne Public Library

540 Fee Avenue, Melbourne, FL

Isabel Marion Clohecy

You're invited to a presentation on this little known but fascinating family who settled in south Brevard along the Indian River in 1874. Find out how they found their way to this area and what it took to survive in this wilderness community of the nineteenth century. Theirs is a story that rivals any historical fiction novel you've ever read.

Jill Berry, a resident of south Brevard for over three decades, is a realtor and local historian. She has been researching the Clohecy family for the last five years and is working on a manuscript about the courageous Isabel Clohecy and her family. She serves on the SBHS Board of Directors and will participate in the upcoming SBHS event, "History Comes Alive in the Melbourne Cemetery".

Kellersberger Fund books will be available for purchase at this meeting.

Dear SBHS Members and Friends,

I often take advantage of this column to update members on coming events, history community issues, and decisions of your board of Directors, as well as offer opportunities for member involvement....Ahem!

As reported last month, long time SBHS member and Satellite Beach Librarian, Ellen Noyd has had to resign from the Board as well as relinquish her position as "overseer" of Kellersberger book sales. She's no longer able to get to our Saturday meetings because of changes to library staffing.

First, I wish to express our gratitude to Ellen for all the years she "lugged" the books to our meetings and to any event we might be invited to participate in. She also kept careful account of all the sales. And...she lugged, and sold, and accounted for sales with dedication and enthusiasm.

So.....I report to you now that Ellen has lugged her supply of "books for sale" to me. Is there a book loving member who would lug and sell? Maybe we can't replace Ellen just yet but maybe we can find some volunteers to help sell the books at our meetings. I'm willing to lug if we can get a volunteer or volunteers to help with this.

To help! with this, please call.....

Jill Berry and Ed Vosatka don "traditional dress" to promote the Society's upcoming events. Both were popular with photographers and attracted quite a following. Jill carried flyers for the Cemetery Tour to hand out to the crowd. Ed brought aerial maps and material on the Union Cypress Railroad to share with event goers.

Kathi Harbaugh talks to some of the many visitors to the Society information booth. They checked out our "story board" of newsletters and pictures of our events. Carol and Carl Andren helped hand out flyers for our October meeting and the Cemetery Tour.

The following books published by the SBHS Kellersberger Fund are available for sale by the SBHS: Tales of Old Brevard, by Georgiana Kjerulff, Rooted in Florida Soil, by Julia Lake Kellersberger; Historic Florida: A Closer Look at the Photographs of a Century Ago in Three Dimension, by Clement Slade; Troubled Paradise: Melbourne Village, Florida, by Georgiana Kjerulff; and Pineapples are Never Black or White, by Harry Goode, Sr. Books are for sale at SBHS meetings..

The SBHS thanks AAA Malabar Mini-Storage, located across the street from the Malabar Town Hall, for their generous donation of air-conditioned secure storage for the Society's collections and archives.
