Historic Show and Tell

Sharing Life's Little Treasures

Presented by Members and Friends of the South Brevard Historical Society

"Tis the season.....for sharing. Please join us as members and friends of the South Brevard Historical Society share historic mementos and artifacts at our next meeting.

Presenters this year will include the owner of Hell'n Blazes Brewing Company, one of the newest establishments in downtown Melbourne. He will talk about some of the fascinating artifacts uncovered during the renovation of the former Christmas Cottage building. Patrisha Meyers, Director of the Brevard Museum of History and Natural Science will discuss recent changes to the museum including the improved and expanded People of Windover exhibit. Chuck Baird will also be on hand to bring us up-to-date with what is new at the Old Melbourne Beach Town Hall. The SBHS Traveling Trunk, to be used in 4th grade classrooms throughout Brevard County, has just been completed and will make its debut. This project has been a year in the making and we look forward to sharing it with you. We also hope to bring you a few last minute surprises!!

Historic Show and Tell has become an annual event enjoyed by all. Please join us for an afternoon of exploring life's little treasures.

DEAR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS....

Looking back on 2015, I believe the South Brevard Historical Society has succeeded in "keeping South Brevard's history alive". In 2016 the Board of Directors will work to increase ways for members and the community to learn about South Brevard's history through the Traveling Trunk program. We also look forward to digitizing items from the SBHS collection and placing the data online.

As part of last month's bus tour we visited Gilbert's Bar House of Refuge and heard about a time in Florida's past when the beaches were so remote sailors shipwrecked offshore surely would have died from exposure without these lifesaving "houses". Looking down Melbourne's beaches today it is hard to imagine such desolation ever existed. This illustrates the SBHS mission well; providing programs and trips that present the rich history of South Brevard specifically, and Florida generally, to the people who stop and take the time to look.

There are still a few spots remaining in our December Annual Show and Tell presentation. Any member or friend who would like to share a historic artifact and/or memento with our group may do so, but I ask that you please contact me before the meeting so that I may add you to the agenda.

I look forward to seeing you at our next meeting. Have a safe and joyous holiday season!
