December 2009

AN INVITATION TO A SPECIAL EVENT

Meet the Authors

Saturday, December 12th

1-4 PM

Melbourne Public Library

Fee Avenue, Melbourne

The South Brevard Historical Society along with the Friends of the Melbourne Library is pleased to present "MEET THE AUTHORS" at the Melbourne Public Library. The SBHS is devoting the December 2009 meeting to authors of local history and history authors who live locally. Authors will be available to discuss their books which cover a wide range of subjects.

This event will offer community members an opportunity to explore the wealth and diversity of history available to them and will provide a venue for authors to meet the public and offer their books for sale.

We hope the timing, two weeks before Christmas, will make it a good opportunity for folks to find quality gifts for friends and family. Ten percent of sales will be donated to the Melbourne Public Library. If you decide to make a purchase, please be prepared to use a check or cash.

Members of the SBHS and the Friends of the Melbourne Library would be pleased if you would join us on this occasion. This is a unique opportunity to meet some of Brevard's authors and explore their writings and research. The following authors are scheduled to attend:

Bill Barnett, "US Naval Air Station, Melbourne, Florida" sitting with Weona Cleveland, Special Guest and Brevard County Historian.

Margaret Broussard "A Florida Child in the Great Depression"

Ann Raley Flotte and Karen Raley "Images of America, Melbourne and Eau Gallie"

Roy Laughlin, Author of
"At First Glance: an Artists View or Rockledge's historic Residential Neighborhoods"

Jenifer and Bob Marx Brevard residents and authors of numerous books on marine archaeology and underwater treasure including their most recent collaboration, "The World's Richest Wrecks"

2010 DUES ARE DUE BY JANUARY 1ST

Dear Members and Friends.....

I'd like to take the time (and space) to thank Penny Goode and Ann Flotte for spearheading HISTORY COMES ALIVE IN THE MELBOURNE CEMETERY. Ann came up with the idea and Penny jumped right in to chair it and get it going.

Kathi Harbaugh kept our finances straight and Ed Vosatka worked wonders with graphics. Denise Bozeman worked her magic with publicity. Barbara Arthur tracked our sponsorships, Bob Gross added historic insight and new board member, Jill Bell, lent fresh insight to the plan.

Thanks to the Committee for the individual contributions and the collaboration that became an "historic event".

The Officers and Directors of the SBHS wish you a JOYOUS HOLIDAY SEASON.

Carol Andren, President, SBHS (725-4115)
